DAY 5

31 DECEMBER

From
6.30am
8.00am

Breakfast is served.

Depart by motor coach to Westminster Pier.

8.30am

Board a Thames river boat for the 50 minute cruise to Greenwich. Your guides will provide an historical commentary en-route. Greenwich, in south-east London, is famous the world over as the home of time (Greenwich Mean Time) and because Zero Longitude, the point where the Eastern & Western hemispheres meet, runs through the town.

Today you will visit the Royal Observatory, the oldest scientific institution in Britain and home to some of the most important timepieces ever made. There will also be time to visit the Royal Naval College, one of the finest palatial buildings in the country and home to the largest maritime museum in the world, and to wander through the historic part of the town.

Depart Greenwich by motor coach, and return via the Olympic Park.

1.00pm

Your tour ends at the Tower of London, where you may find an independent lunch at one of a number of eateries in the area.

1.45pm

Join your Blue Badge Guide for a tour of The Tower.

The ancient stones reverberate with dark secrets, priceless jewels glint in fortified vaults and ravens strut the grounds. The Tower of London, founded by William the Conqueror in 1066, holds some of the most remarkable stories from across the centuries. Despite a grim reputation as a place of torture and death, this powerful and enduring fortress has been enjoyed as a royal palace, served as an armoury and for a number of years even housed a zoo!

Gaze up at the massive White Tower, tiptoe through a king's medieval bedchamber and marvel at the priceless Crown Jewels. The famous Yeoman Warders have bloody tales to tell; stand where heads rolled and prisoners wept.

The Tower held many famous prisoners from the highest levels of society; some in astonishing comfort and others less so... visit the places of their confinement and read the graffiti left by prisoners from over 500 years ago.

When your tour is over, your guide will walk you to Aldgate East Underground Station, which is the start of the 'Jack The Ripper' Audio Walk. Walk in the very footsteps of the man who breathed sheer terror in to the hearts of Londoners in Victorian Times.

Return to Tower Hill Underground Station on the Circle and District Lines, and, using your Travel Card, journey back in to the West End.

7.00pm

Dinner will be served in your hotel.

8.30pm

Join fellow participants in a private room in your hotel, for a specially arranged New Year's Eve party.

The music will play until midnight when, after a brief celebration, it will be time to get some sleep before your big day.

At around 10.00pm you will be served with pizza and a soft drink as part of this evening's celebrations.

DAY 6 01 JANUARY

From
7.00am

Breakfast is served.

Congregate in reception in your parade uniform and with your instrument in preparation for your departure this morning.

Depart by motor coach to Millbank, where your resource assistant will lead you to the location of your official group photograph adjacent the Palace of Westminster.

Return to your coach and continue to the assembly area in Berkeley Square. Please leave instrument boxes on the coach. The team of stewards will have clearly marked where you need to line up.

Depending on your position in the Parade, you may be waiting here for as long as two hours, but there will be the opportunity to warm up before you march off.

Toilet and first aid facilities are available.

Catering facilities are limited in the assembly area and so we have arranged for you to receive an excellent packed lunch to eat before you march off.

Warm ups will be collected before the Parade starts and delivered back to your hotel.

Non performers will have the morning at leisure and will find that shops and restaurants will be open as usual. They will then make their way independently to the Parade Route, where they will take their seat in one of the highly coveted LNYDP Grandstands to watch the parade.

12.00 noon

LNYDP. The running of London's New Year's Day Parade. At exactly midday the parade starts and you will march two miles down the most spectacular route in the world, before an expected audience of more than half a million people and many more watching the live satellite broadcast.

As you reach the end of Whitehall, you will line up for the waiting cameras that will be beaming your performance around the world. Tell your friends at home to look out for you and don't forget to tell them about the time difference!

Enjoy this unique experience!

At Parliament Square your dedicated coaches will be on hand to take you back to your hotel.

Dinner at leisure, using the vouchers provided. Evening at leisure.

This evening you may wish to travel by Underground to Tottenham Court Road, the starting point for the 'Guide and Seek' interactive treasure trail audio walk. Don't forget to take a pencil and paper as you try and unravel the secret trail and find the hidden clues.

DAY 7

02 JANUARY

From 7.00am

Breakfast is served.

You will be given a time when your musical equipment will be collected this morning before your daytime activities begin. Ensure that each box has been labelled correctly for the return journey.

Depart by Underground or bus using your Oyster card.

This morning you have the option of either going to King's Cross Station, the starting point for the Harry Potter's London audio walk, or to Tottenham Court Road station, the starting point for 'London Rocks!'. You've read the incredible books and seen the wonderful films, well today you will follow in Harry Potter's footsteps and discover the actual locations used in the films. From the Leaky Cauldron, the third hand book store, to Gringots Bank and platform 9¾.

If rock music is your thing, then no other city in the world has such a rich rock and roll history as London. All the greats have performed here, from Hendrix to the Stones, from the Beatles to Elton John. A highlight will be the sight of Abbey Road studios and the actual zebra crossing used by the Beatles for the iconic picture on their album cover for Abbey Road.

If you have time, why not do both!

This afternoon is unstructured and an ideal opportunity to visit some more of London's most popular attractions and to do some shopping.

Don't miss the British Museum and the National Gallery, they're free! Although you have to pay, a visit inside St. Paul's Cathedral or Westminster Abbey are a must.

In the shopping section we have included all of the most popular places to hang out, along with some of the famous department stores and shopping malls.

Remember you will need to change your money for those important purchases! Advice on exchange rates and where best to change your money can be found in the general information section.

The most famous department stores are Harrods (Knightsbridge), Liberty (Regent Street) and Selfridges (Oxford Street), although there are many more wonderful shops to choose from in Bond Street and Covent Garden.

The most popular places to hang out are Piccadilly Circus, Leicester Square, Covent Garden, the Hard Rock Café (Hyde Park Corner), the Trocadero (Piccadilly Circus) and Planet Hollywood (Haymarket).

Dinner at leisure, using the vouchers provided.

Evening at leisure.

This evening you may wish to travel by Underground to Covent Garden, the starting point for the 'Art-rageous London' audio walk. Explore the heart of London' famous theatreland and enjoy some of the stories we have to tell you about the stars of the stage.
