31 DECEMBER

On your arrival in to Madrid, after clearing immigration and customs, you will be met in the arrivals area and transferred by coach to your hotel. On arrival at the hotel your Tour Assistant will help with your check-in.

An orientation meeting will be given by your Tour Assistant who will give you your itinerary book and any additional information and maps that you will need to enjoy your time in Spain.

Lunch at Leisure.

You will have the opportunity for some personal sightseeing and shopping. You may like to listen to the Madrid audio guide walking tour 'Explore Madrid', all about the main attractions and monuments in Madrid. Your Tour Assistant will also be able to suggest things you might like to see or do this afternoon.

Return to your hotel for your gala dinner.

A New Year's Eve gala dinner will be served in your hotel this evening.

After dinner, music and dancing has been arranged in your hotel. Party poppers, hats and balloons will be provided to see in the New Year.

You will be able to ring in the New Year in traditional Spanish style! A TV will be provided for you to watch the bells ring out from the Real Casa de Correos clock in Puerta Del Sol. Traditions state that eating a grape for each 12 chimes of the clock will bring you luck!

The party will go on until just after midnight when, after a brief celebration, it will be time to get some rest.

1 JANUARY

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

A substantial buffet breakfast will be served each morning in your hotel.

Breakfast is served.

Depart from your hotel on a panoramic sightseeing tour with an English speaking guide, including photo stops around Madrid. You will drive along the great avenues of Alcalá, Castellana and Gran Vía, pass through the great Plaza of España, Colón and the world famous Plaza Mayor, and have the chance to see the finale area of the Cabalgata de Reyes in Plaza de la Cibeles outside the Madrid City Hall.

You will be taken past the 'centre' of Madrid including the celebrated Puerta del Sol and many of the great monuments and museums including the Palacio Real, the Prado, the Thyssen and Reina Sofia museums and of course Retiro park. The tour is also a great opportunity to look out for places you might like to visit during any independent time you have in Madrid.

Independent lunch at leisure.

This afternoon enjoy one of the many Christmas markets in Madrid. Such as the one in Plaza Mayor, the most classic of all the Christmas markets in Madrid! Starting in mid-November and lasting until early January, this iconic square transforms into a winter wonderland adorned with twinkling lights and cheerful decorations. With more than 100 stalls, a brightly lit carousel and a festive atmosphere all throughout the historic square, you'll definitely find yourself in the Christmas spirit from the moment you arrive. Plus, with a history stretching back to the 19th century, it's also one of the oldest and most cherished Christmas markets in the whole country. There's no better place to get in the holiday mood!

Or the Feria Mercado de Artesanía de Madrid (Madrid Craftsmanship Fair Market) a celebration of creativity and craftsmanship that takes place at the picturesque Plaza de España. This art and craft market showcases the rich cultural heritage and talent of local artisans and designers. As visitors wander through the market, they are treated to an exceptional array of high-quality, handmade products. From intricately crafted jewellery to exquisitely designed clothing. The festive atmosphere enhances the experience as visitors have the opportunity to meet the artists and gain insight into the stories behind each art piece. With its emphasis on authenticity and creativity, this market provides an ideal platform for both artists and visitors to share in the joy of artistic expression and find extraordinary gifts for their loved ones.

Return to your hotel in Madrid.

Dinner this evening will be served in your hotel.

2 JANUARY

Breakfast is served in your hotel.

This morning you will be taken on a guided tour of the Prado Museum. The Museum is full of works by very famous artists including El Greco, Velasquez, Rubens, Goya and Bosch, and maintains the art collection of Fernando VII and other Spanish Royals.

The Prado is one of the foremost art Museums in the world, however in Madrid there are two other famous art museums which together are called The Golden Triangle. Due to their proximity, in your free time, you may want to visit the other two: The Thyssen Museum and the Reina Sofia.

Lunch at leisure at San Miguel Market, where you will find over thirty Spanish food stalls to choose from!

This afternoon, take a guided tour of the Royal Palace, the official residence of the Kings and Queens of Spain. The palace is made up of 3,000 rooms some of which are still used for State Banquets and great occasions today. The impressive building made mainly of marble and white stone is filled with works of art, porcelain, armour and tapestries. Make sure to see the opulent apartments of Charles III in particular his dressing rooms, also the huge State Dining Room created by Alonso XIII and the Royal Pharmacy is also definitely worth a quick look!

After the guided tour of the Royal Palace ends you might like to take a look inside the Almudena Cathedral.

The Almudena Cathedral also known as the Catholic Cathedral of Madrid. Completed only in 1993 it has a neo-gothic interior filled with modern art, statues and stained glass. It is the seat of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Madrid. The cathedral was consecrated by Pope John Paul II in 1993. The cathedral seems to have been built on the site of a medieval mosque that was destroyed in 1083 when Alfonso VI reconquered Madrid.
